MAP OF

GUIMARAS ISLAND

Guimaras is an island province located Southeast of Panay and Northwest of Negros Island in Western Visayas, Philippines. The province of Guimaras is composed of five (5) municipalities and ninety-eight barangays (villages) with Jordan as the capital, and Hiligaynon as the native language.

The island has a total coastline length of 470.29 km and covers a land area of 60,457 ha. It consists of eight islands and has four major rivers, namely the Igang River, Sibunag River, Cabano River, and Mantangingi River. The topography of Guimaras varies from level to steeply sloping, with land elevation ranging from 0 to nearly 300 meters above sea level. Mt. Dinalman, located in Millan, Sibunag, has the highest elevation of 267 meters above mean sea level (amsl).

ACTIVITIES YOU CAN TRY IN GUIMARAS

From Iloilo City, take a 15-minute boat ride to Jordan or Buenavista. A jeepney or van will take you to the mango plantations, farms, fishing areas, and eco sites. The bike enthusiasts may also pedal their way in the rolling hills of the island towards their breath-taking destinations.

Adventure seekers may experience trail biking, kayaking, paddle boarding, and island hopping. Experiential tourism goers can enjoy community-based activities such as weaving, fishing, arts and crafts, and local cuisines.

Visit the historical landmarks like the MacArthur's Wharf, the 18th century-old Guisi Lighthouse, Navalas Church, and Roca Encantada. Refresh one's tired spirit through a retreat at the Our Lady of the Philippines Trappist Monastery, a trek at the Balaan Bukid (Holy Mountain) or Way of the Cross at the Holy Family Hills.
